RBC Capital Markets is part of The Royal Bank of Canada ("RBC"), a leading provider of financial services. Operating since 1869, RBC is one of the top 15 banks in the world and the fifth largest in North America, as measured by market capitalization. With a strong capital base and consistent financial performance, RBC is among an elite group of highly rated global banks.

RBC Capital Markets has successfully expanded in Europe over the last years and is continuously growing its investment banking operations in Frankfurt.

Position

RBC is offering a unique internship opportunity to spend 3 months in Frankfurt working as part of a cross-sector Investment Banking team, primarily on M&A engagements.

The role of the intern is to support in the daily work of the team, this includes preparing presentations for client meetings, working on financial models and company valuations and conducting research on various ad hoc topics. As a key member of an expanding team, working in an international environment, the position will offer the opportunity for a wide range of experiences including execution of live transactions and client marketing.

In addition, the internship will be complemented with on-going training and mentoring.

RBC offers a salary in line with that of other global investment banks.

Requirements

We are looking for an individual with outstanding academic records, proven analytical skills, a demonstrated interest in finance and a history of participation in extracurricular activities. Other essential qualities we look for include strong oral and written communication skills, proven leadership capabilities, initiative, curiosity and the ability to play a key role as a team member in a fast-paced and challenging work environment.

Fluency in both German and English is essential for this role.
